PREFACE

The first publication issued by the Statistical Office of the Republic of Serbia (SORS) was The Statistical Yearbook (1949). At the beginning of the fifties of the last century, the following publications were issued: Statistical release, Monthly Statistical Review and Bulletin, and all of them are still being published. In the mid-sixties, SORS introduced the new serial publication Working Document, and in the seventies, Municipalities in Serbia. Since 2002, SORS has significantly enriched its publishing activity, by overtaking the model of certain publications issued by the former Federal Statistical Office, such as: Demography statistics, Economic trends and Statistical Calendar.

In 2004, the Office has also started issuing own publications on the website. An advantage of this kind of issuing is free publications' download. Together with the development of information - communication technologies and databases, the users are offered the possibility of overtaking all statistical data directly from the website.

This catalogue presents all publications issued in the period October 2018 – October 2019, including also list of Books of 2011 Census of population, households and dwellings and 2012 Census of Agriculture.

Economic accounts for agriculture are created for the purpose of monitoring and evaluating the effects of agricultural policy.

The data are expected to provide a basis for analysing the production processes of the agricultural sector and the primary income generated in agriculture. They also ensure international comparability of the EAA results with the other countries (international comparability), as well as comparisons with the results of other economic activities in the national economy. The presented results of calculations of the economic accounts for agriculture in the Republic of Serbia cover the period from 2007 to 2018 and relate to the elements of production account and factor income in agriculture.

The results are offered at current and constant prices.

Also provided are the methodological principles with a detailed description of calculation methods, data sources and main features.

Methodologies and standards

Methodologies and standards are the serial publications with detailed explanations of statistical methods, standards, and instructions for survey conducting.

The texts include definitions of population, statistical units and their features, classifications, nomenclatures and other explanations of statistical processes.

SORS has launched this edition in 2003.

Format	27 cm
Binding	Paperback – perfect binding
Electronic version	PDF

The special publication "Structure of agricultural holdings in fruit growing of the Republic of Serbia, 2018" is intended for general scientific and professional public. The data obtained by the Survey provide a clear insight into the exact areas under fruit species, the structure of plantations by the intensity of production, as well as a large number of other data. The total area of orchards in the Republic of Serbia is small relative to the favourable climatic and land conditions for fruit growing, so the results of the Survey can be used to make appropriate decisions and measures for the development of fruit growing in the Republic of Serbia, both locally and nationally.
